

T P . . . a

Okanagan College's renowned co-op program teaches students the applied knowledge to become a business professional in one of the following fields: Accounting, Finance, Human Resources, Marketing, Management, and Tourism & Hospitality.

Co-op department staff are registered with the Canadian Association for Co-operative Education (CAFCE) and accredited through the Accountability Council for Co-op Education (ACCE).

O . . .

Combining hands-on technical skills with theoretical business principles, students are ready to work in a variety of co-

