Notes (con't)

Marks for classroom contribution will be allocated in the following manner:

- 0 - For failing on all of the previously identified ways of contributing to the classroom experience. This includes dominating classroom discussion, rather than helping others to participate in the classroom experience.
- 1-2 - For attending class on a regular basis and only occasionally contributing to the classroom experience (and exercises).
- 3-5 - For showing an active interest in class activities and participating in classroom discussions; for regularly making insightful comments which help others to understand the course material; for being a positive group member.
- 6-8 - For consistently enhancing the quality of class discussion and for near-perfect attendance and proving to go above and beyond the call of duty in terms of extra contributions to the classroom experience (and exercises).
- 9-10 - Students in this category provide leadership in the classroom and work towards enhancing the interpersonal dynamics of the classroom. They act as facilitators, bringing others into the discussion. Quality exercises are completed throughout the course.

Notes on Course Schedule:

xProfessors may progress more quickly or slowly through the assigned chapters depending upon complexity, discussion, current issues, guest speakers and/or fieldtrips, etc. as well as the class needs associated with development of students' skills and knowledge and the need to assess student progress.

Notes on Presentations:

xStudents are expected to be present for the sales presentations and role plays. Failure to do so will result in loss of marks for that assignment.
