Notes

This course is essentially a senior elective seminar that will employ class discussion and secondary research to achieve the learning outcomes. In this sense, it will not be like most courses you've taken to date at the OSB; it will be more like the special courses that require travel and observation (normally scheduled during our Summer Term) except we will not be traveling physically, only in a virtual sense. In addition, the course will not have a widely used scheme since none exists, either in academia or in the industry, for identifying and analyzing future trends. We will be using a variation of the Delphi Method which employs informed opinion and consensus building as the basis for identifying future trends as the framework for the course.

SKILLS ACROSS THE BUSINESS CURRICULUM

The Okanagan School of Business promotes core skills across the curriculum. These skills include reading, written and oral communications, computers, small business, and academic standards of ethics, honesty and integrity.

STUDENT CONDUCT AND ACADEMIC HONESTY

What is the Disruption of Instructional Activities?

At Okanagan College (OC), disruption of instructional activities includes student “conduct which interferes with examinations, lectures, seminars, tutorials, group meetings, other related activities, and with students using the study facilities of OC”, as well as conduct that leads to property damage, assault, discrimination, harassment and fraud. Penalties for disruption of instructional activities include a range of sanctions from a warning and/or a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course to suspension from OC.
