

Employers are encouraged to recruit during the four-month period prior to a work term(s) and/or graduation. Additional work terms can be incorporated at employer's or student's request.

The Diploma in Electronic Engineering is a 24-course program.

